sond,

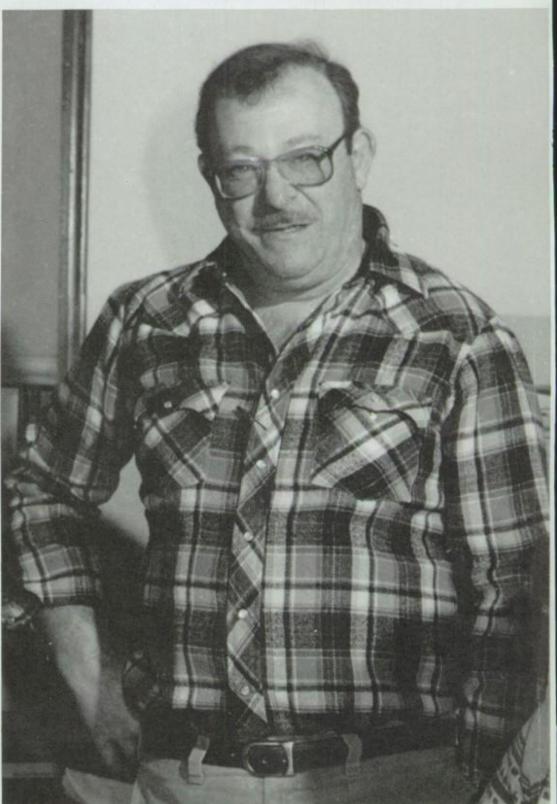

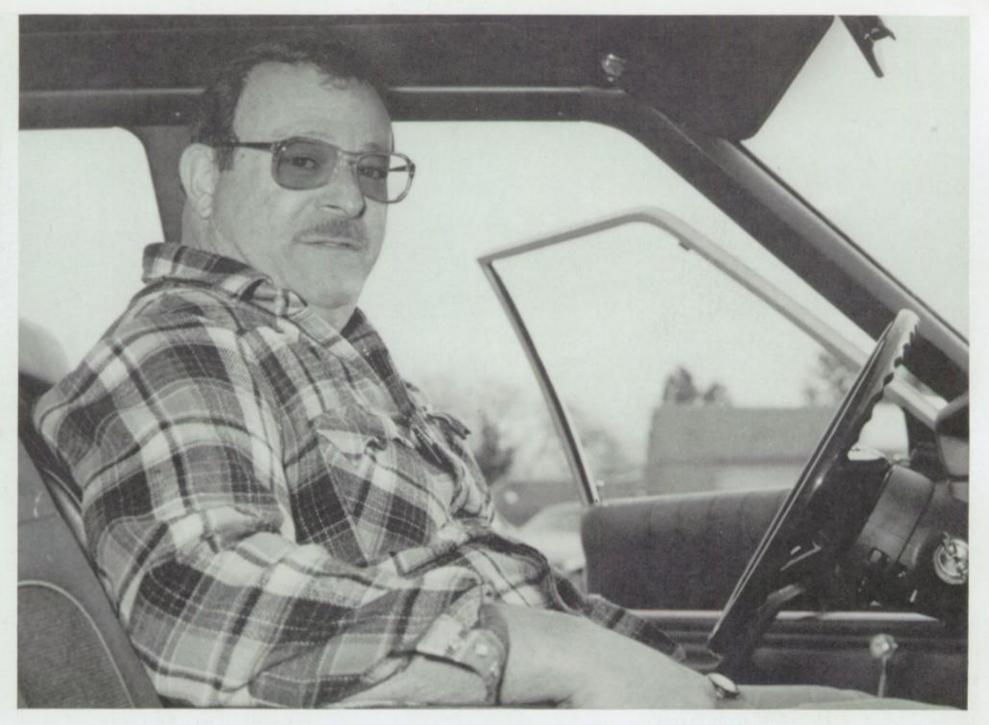

Mr. Cogan, Thank You!

Mr. Cogan was born in Philadelphia and raised in Ithaca, graduating from Ithaca schools. During those childhood years, his mother had many hard times trying to keep up with his antics.

After high school, he attended Hobart College and Ithaca College. He interrupted his college education for two years by going into the army. After his discharge as a Corporal in 1955, he returned to Ithaca College to get his Bachelors degree and his Masters.

Mr. Cogan was married the year he graduated from Ithaca College. He and his wife, Carolyn, have three lovely daughters. The Cogan family has lived in the Trumansburg area for 19 years.

During those years he has taught in Ithaca, Clyde, and here in South Seneca. For 18 of those 19 years, teaching in South Seneca such subjects as Health and Driver Education. For both of these subjects the teacher needs nerves of steel if they are to be taught to high school students.

With many thanks and much appreciation, the Senior Class would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Stuart Cogan; for his teaching, his patience, and his caring nature. We, the Senior Class, will miss him when we are gone, but a little bit of Mr. Stuart Cogan will exist in each and every one of us for a lifetime.

Memories that we keep,
Not knowing what the future seeks.
We look back at the times we had,
Be they happy or be they sad.
Thinking of the friends we made,
Hoping that the past won't fade.
Thinking thoughts of you and me,
And the CLASS of '83.

South Seneca presented the musical comedy "Swinging High" in March of 1983. The musical was a story that tells what happens when a formidable principal (Richard Brewer) takes over the Southern High School. He imposes 'Cruel Days' on teachers and students alike with his program of all work and no play designed to produce more scientist. But a little libelous intrique coupled with romance brings about happy and hilarious solution.

Besides Richard Brewer, the cast includes Miia Delaney, Dan Sweeney, Kerry McCardle, Anne Guinan, Dave Corning, Kris Steverson, Chris Alger, Kelly Corcoran, Richard Green, and Mr. Joe Gublo in major roles. Other cast members included Lisa Mayo, Jim and Patricia McShea, Becky Milks, Lisa Sardone, Lisa MoGonical, Aimee Bils, Joe Myer, Bonnie Travato, Rob Scott, Sharon Hassman, Scott Voorhees, and Bonni Terry.

The stage crew and lighting crew consisted of Kim Carmell, D.C. Crane, Dale Frantz, Eric Harris, Bret Coburn, and Chuck Swarthout.

This year's X-Country team was the finest in the history of South Seneca. Led by Senior John Wagner, the only undefeated runner in our league, the team cruised into the Section 5 B-C race at CCFL. Kevin Mckee, Kami Hedeyat, Dan Perez, and Dave Corning were key runners for the team, and with all the depth they had they won the Class B-C race and competed in the State Meet, where they placed 6th. They finished the season with a 10-4 record in the league, 3rd. behind Penn Yan and Adaguia.

This year's Track team, under the coaching of Tom Pritchard, improved their record to 4-4, beating Bloomfeild twice and just beating Red Jacket twice. Next year looks promising since 11 of this year's team is returning. We would like to thank our score keepers, Alice McShea, Petra Peper, and Mel Steversen, for all the support they gave us.

This years soccer team under Coach Jim Cavanaugh had a great year. The seasonal record in league play was 8-4-2. The 5th loss was in sectionals against Filmore. The Falcons had five all-league players this year, captain Melanie VanVleet along with Cindy Ripa made first team, Kathy Elsworth made second team, and Vicki Thompson and Tanya Welytok made honorable mention. If not for the team spirit being so strong the Falcon's year would not of turned out as well as it did. Fantastic job Everybody.

The girls varsity volleyball team took second place in the league this year with a 10-2 record. They also took second place at the annual T-burg Tournament over Christmas vacation. The team went to the section 5 semi-final playoffs and lost to the eventual winner of the section 5 tournament. Their overall record was 13-4. It was an excellent year.

The J.V. volleyball team was the league champion this year with a 18-0 overall record. They won the Newark Invitational Tournament. Things look bright for girls volleyball at South Seneca.

Record so far 2-4 with consistent help from co-captain's Larry Hollister and Craig Waid, and some additional help from Ed Haskins, Rob Robbins and Jim McShea. With six seniors leaving us this year and six Jr. High members coming to the High School next year the team should have some depth, since that the Jr. High team has shown us that they have the experience and they can wrestle.

The Falcon girls softball team ended the season with 7 wins and 6 losses. This put them in 4th in the league standings and qualified the team for sectional play. The big surprise came in the sectionals as the girls progressed further than any other Falcon team had ever gone. They lost to Honeoye in the semi-finals. Sue Townsend had been elected to the All Stars team. Also a first for any South Seneca girl. This team was a young team with Sue Townsend and Connie Voorhees the only seniors. Mel VanVleet was the leading batter at 458 followed closely by Jeanna MacCheyne.

I'm pretty good. well, I'm supposed to fill the whole page so have a go, first old like to think you for being such a great friend, To bad We couldn't have some classes to gether maybe rart year. We've made it through our first year and then only 3 more years, but then what time will tell. I'd like to say we've had our good + bad times but this year their S just hasn't been that many times together. But we did share the feeling of sweat running down our backs and the belings of defeat and win. Remember the dunder game when you hurt your ankle and I got a big T foul boy I do. That was my first offerive of getting fouled out.
